IN MEMORIAM

THEOPHILUS R. EAGLES

PROFESSOR OF MATHEMATICS, 1913—1936

VICE-PRESIDENT, 1921—1936

With increasing devotion we treasure the memory of a teacher who was both friend and critic, who brought with him to this college his fine training, his deep understanding, and his personal sympathy with each student. The twenty-three years of his life in Howard had a single spire of meaning—loyalty: Loyalty to the lengthening roll of students who were, and are Howard College.

Alma Mater

Our President

Dr. Thomas V. Neat, President of Howard College, is the executive who strives most to preserve our campus equanimity and to make our college days more pleasant. Himself a graduate of Howard, he knows the ideals and standards which have lived through many generations, and takes care to embody them in our modern program. His droll sense of humor and his cordial manner toward students make his handsomely appointed office an inviting place to mix business with pleasure.

Dean Percy P. Burns deserves all the favorable adjectives he could ever enumerate, and that's quite a volume, considering his inexhaustible vocabulary. As dean of the college and as professor of English, he has become a favorite with every student at Howard. The depth of his character is so forcible that his approval of all student endeavors is courted persistently. To the public at large, he is noted as one of the most sought after lecturers in Birmingham.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Hoyt Ayers, president of the student body, was the man elected by popular vote to preside over the student council meetings. The student council is composed of representatives who are, in turn, elected from their respective classes. This is the highest student governing group at Howard and has the supervision of the business affairs of the student body. Other officers who served with President Ayers are: HUBERT MATE, Vice-President; CATHERINE COVINGTON, Secretary, and IRENE SELF, Treasurer. In the picture above are: JOE MONGLE, RUTH KYTLE, BILL VAIL, MOLLIE ANDERTON, HAROLD CARTER, HOYT AYERS, ALEX MCCUTCHEN, HUBERT MATE, IRENE SELF, CATHERINE COVINGTON, KATHERINE WALKER, LAFAYETTE WALKER, FRANK BRYAN (not in picture).

The Howard Crimson

The college newspaper appeared weekly because of the enterprising group show here. Campus news took form from various typewriters. Assistant Editor BLANCHE WALLS either found news or made news. The "demon" reporter, MARTHA SUTLEY, subtly scraped up news all the way from Mamie Mell to Duck Inn. HUBERT MATE and DAN MURNANE had the privilege of reporting Bulldog victories in abundance, while IRENE SELF and MARGARET HENDRIX commented on every social fete as to who was there, what was worn, and how they looked. LEE WHITE managed to be clever every week with "Words About People." EVELYN RIDDLE, BILLIE CHILDERS, JAMES LYNN, and J. C. ADAMS inveigled advertisers, much to the delight of the business manager.

"Among ourselves" the 1937 ENTRE NOUS was compiled. This book is not the result of the efforts of the Editor and Business Manager alone, but the work of several. Assistant Editor WILLIAM WEAVER spent most of his afternoons in the ENTRE NOUS office typing copy, marking pictures, making helpful suggestions and being invaluable in sundry ways. Associate Editor LEE WHITE, who is responsible for the humor section, served in many and various capacities. Sports Editor HUBERT MATE saw that the Dixie Champions got some deserved glory, while DAN MURNANE and HERBERT BROWN did their parts. Sorority Editor ANNE JOE RYAN and Fraternity Editors HARRY MARTIN and BILLY REYNOLDS gathered information on the "Greeks." LUCILLE THACKER and CLYDE HUGHES took it upon themselves to snap, develop, and print every snapshot used on these pages. Faculty Advisors MISS AIDA TOWNES, DR. BRACKETFIELD, and PROF. BALES always took time to smooth over the many difficulties as they arose. Others who helped in reading proof, keeping records, giving advice, etc., were: CATHERINE HAM, Associate Editor; HUGH FRANK SMITH, Associate Editor, THELMA TERRY, SARAH FARLEY, ANN CLAIRE COOPER, MOLLY ANDERTON, IRENE SELF, MARGARET BURFORD, HENRY ANDERTON, MARTHA JULE BLACKSHEAR, ELOISE DENTON, EVELL JOHNSON.

Mary Wattie Wilson and Martha Jule Blackshear tell us the Phi Mu's are picking somebody's goose . . . The girls' dorm. car looks almost as pretty as the happy co-eds in it.

A lazy winter afternoon in the private room at the Delta Zeta was the scene of a social gathering. The room was filled with the soft glow of the fire and the gentle hum of conversation. The Delta Zeta was the center of the social life of the college. The room was open to all, and the students were free to come and go as they pleased. The Delta Zeta was the place where the students met to discuss their studies, to share their experiences, and to enjoy the company of their friends. The Delta Zeta was the heart of the college, and it was there that the students found the warmth and comfort of home.

The SENIOR CLASS

MARY ELLEN ADKINS • Most beautiful girl, Who's Who Contest, Miss Howard College, Beauty Section of ENTRE NOUS, Freshman Marshal, Howard Crimson Staff, Y. W. C. A. Secretary, Hypatia, W. A. A., Parade Sponsor, Pep Squad, Honor Roll, Stunt Night, Vice-President Freshman Commission, Treasurer of Junior Class, May Court, Scholarship Day, "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," and Editor of 1937 ENTRE NOUS.

MOLLIE ANDERTON, A Δ II • It seems impossible, even for a wonder girl like Mollie, to major in Biology and be president of Alpha Delta Pi. Not only that, but her honors include all of the best: Beauty Section, ESTRO News, President Woman's Student Government, Hypatia Historian, Beta Pi Theta, A E Δ, Lab. Instructor, Masquers, Pan-Hellenic Vice-President, ESTRO News Staff, Secretary of Student Body, "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities"—and an "A" student. Glee!

ROBERT ANTOINE ● Robert, a gentleman of the old school, never learned, despite his college education, to refrain from giving a lady his seat on the street car, and consequently is one of the most popular boys, in a subdued way, with the co-eds on the campus. He was consistently well-dressed.

HOYT AYERS, H K A ● We give you the president of the student body. He would not list his honors, but ability, like murder, will out. Who's Who, Most Outstanding Boy of the year, Glee Club, Y. M. C. A., Masquers. A ministerial student, quiet in his manner, sober in thought and action, he made one of the best presidents in a decade. Collinsville claims him for its own.

SYBIL BAIRD ● Sybil's name is as well known on the campus for scholarship as that of any. As president of Chi Delta Phi she has led the feminine writers for more than a year, and as a member of Booklovers' Club and the Library Staff has made her name synonymous with "A's," writing, and books.

SECOND ROW

VIRGINIA BARNES, B Z O ● One of the liveliest and most interesting persons in the Senior Class, Virginia has carried the name of Barnes through the Science Hall with a spotless reputation for diligent experimentation, and only occasional instances of luring admiring young men away from their chemistry and physics. Booklovers, Vesta President, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

JULIA BAZEMORE ● Constantly cheerful and friendly, Julia has become one of the most respected students in the college, and in Booklovers, Y. W. C. A., and W. A. A. has done more than her share of extra-curricular work. Talladega.

ADOLPH BEDSOLE ● Inquisitive Adolph has gotten his share of college education in four years, never missing more classes than was absolutely necessary, and always appearing for his examinations with his lessons learned. He's bound to succeed in the world, with a method like that.

CEMENTINE WEAVER BELL ● The name sounds less mouth filling when pronounced Cemmy, and as such she was known far and wide. Entering her Junior year, she went right to work and ended up a talented member of Y. W. C. A. and Booklovers' Club. Stephens College was the original alma mater.

JACK BELL, H K A ● One of the campus gods, Bell dressed well, looked well, did well with the co-eds. Voting students made him Business Manager of ESTRO News, Vice-President Freshman Class, Editor of the Bull Pup. He was member of Pan-Hellenic Council, Editor Freshman edition of the Crimson, Parade Committee, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet and Freshman Stunt, President of Pi Kappa Phi. From Dothan.

THIRD ROW

BERNICE BELLSNYDER, Δ Z ● Who could forget Bernice in "Engaged" as the old Scotch mother? It was a scream, never to be forgotten. Also in "Mrs. Moonlight," and member of Masquers, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, and Parade Committee. A jolly good girl is she, indeed.

LUCILE BLACK, B Z O ● For years it was Lucile's voice that always reiterated "The line is busy" when you were trying to make an outside call. She possesses that unusual quality of good nature which (outside the switch board) induces her to indulge in cheery banter and zig zaggy conversation.

CECIL BLACKBURN, O K N ● Cecil went to Southern for three years, but when he came to his senses immediately transferred to Howard, and Howard, recognizing his talents, too, made him Treasurer of Kappa Psi and member of Pan-Hellenic Council. Comes from Fairfield.

EDGAR C. BLACKBURN ● Quiet and retiring at school, he became the good-natured assistant when working. He never did make up his mind whether he would give his heart to Howard or to Chemistry, but his diploma is proof enough that he knew what he wanted. Kappa Phi Kappa, Physical Society, Honor Roll, and lab assistant.

MARTHA JULE BLACKSHEAR, Φ M ● To put it gently, Martha Jule was a tremendous success as a co-ed, and an Honor Roll student to boot. This versatile cat one not only was Women's Champion Tennis Player, but Volleyball Instructor, member of Y. W. C. A., ESTRO News Staff, Stunt Committee, President of Y. W. A., on May Day program, and W. A. A. High point of her career was when she boo-hood in the Sophomore Stunt. Howard lured her from Headland.

FIRST ROW

WILBUR L. BOROM • Candidate for a degree with honors, Wilbur had time to do a number of things outside his studies as a ministerial student, member of the Mission Band, Glee Club, Pi Gamma Mu, Treasurer of B. S. U., and Honor Roll. His degree is with honors, without the official pronouncement of the faculty. Ansley.

SERENA BOYKIN • Mention Serena Boykin anywhere, and people will begin to shake their heads and mutter, "All A's, all A's—it ain't fair." She continues to make them, and to talk like Katherine Hepburn. Hypatia, Book-lovers Secretary and Vice-President, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Marshal for Sophomore and Junior Class, Scholarship Day. A superior product of Oakman.

HERBERT BROWNE, A A T • Herbert called all the plays for the Bulldogs during a championship season, and that's enough in itself to keep him among the college's heroes. He was president of Alpha Lambda Tau, on ESTRE NOTS Staff, Pan-Hellenic Council, "H" Club, and Baseball Team. That broken nose didn't mar his looks at all—the girls still think he's got it all over Robert Taylor.

FRACY BURGER, A A T • Fracy majored in football during his four-year residence in the Boys' Dormitory, and his work his Senior year made him one of the outstanding players in the conference. The "H" Club, of course. Came all the way from Gadsden.

HENRY BURGETT • This is the third football player in a row (see Browne and Burger), and Henry Lee is just about three men all by himself. Ask the board that selected the conference team, Burgett was a powerful choice. He was a member of "H" Club and a Physical Ed. instructor.

SECOND ROW

HAROLD M. CARTER, H K A • Harold is one of the quiet boys who don't say much but end up with most of the campus honors in the bag: President Freshman Class, Pan-Hellenic Secretary-Treasurer, Student Council, Kappa Psi, President of Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Junta Society. Pi Kappa Alpha President his Sophomore and Junior years. A Pharmacy student, and a notably likable fellow. Residence, Selma.

WILLIAM CHANDLER • William had sense enough to concentrate on classroom schedules instead of campus activities. Consequently, he is one of those fortunate people who graduate with no tabulating of incomplete courses, dropped courses, or just plain outright flunking.

EDWARD CHOJNOWSKI, H K A • Chow, with his build that Tarzan would gnash his teeth in envy at, was another of the 1936 immortals. Besides which, he played baseball, basketball, took a turn at fistcuffs, and was President of Pan-Hellenic.

RAYMOND CHRISTIAN • Long will the Panthers rue the day that Christian signed up at Howard. And long will the Bulldogs and their supporters cherish the ground-gaining activities of Ray last November. Placed on conference team selected by South's greatest sports writers. Zipp Newman called his day's work the greatest single exhibition ever seen on Legion Field. Not bad, Raymond, not bad.

DICK CLAY, H K A • Words too us. Roosevelt's AAA may be unconstitutional, but Dick Clay's AAA is the real thing. It goes on and on. He's never made anything else. He takes easy courses, such as Chemistry, Physics, German, and such-like craps. Member of Chi Alpha Sigma, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Freshman and Junior Stunts. Always on the Honor Roll. Sophomore Marshal, and Head Marshal Junior year. Voted Most Intelligent Boy in school.

THIRD ROW

JUDSON COLLEY, S N • Another of the Colleys, "Jud" made reputation for being best-dressed football player, likable campus personality, and joined "H" Club, Stunt Committee, and Alpha Epsilon Delta, Pan-Hellenic Council. From Troy.

NORMAN COOPER, A A T • "Coop" is the tall, lanky lad who received just about all the athletic honors humanly possible at Howard. Voted best athlete, varsity football and basketball star for three years, the climax came when he was selected for the "Little All-America" team. He has a preference for tall blondes, one in particular.

CATHERINE COVINGTON • About the only coed anywhere who gives verve to her reserve. A smart girl, Catherine, and vivacious and subdued at the same time. It can't be explained, but get this before you go see for yourself: Secretary of Student Body, Social Science Club, Treasurer of Booklovers, May Day Festivities, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., President Pi Gamma Mu, Honor Roll, Forum, Sherman Club, Social Service Committee, Women's Career Conference.

ROSEMARY CROOK, A A O • A creature of quiet and interesting habits, Rosemary (what a nice name!) got an edge on Pan-Hellenic her Sophomore year and kept it for three years, acting as Vice-President her Junior year. She was also in Glee Club and Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

REBECCA DAILY, A Z • Speaking of honors, Rebecca is the girl to name. She got almost everything: Delta Zeta President, President Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, W. A. A., Booklovers, B. S. U., Student Activities Board Secretary, Vice-President Woman's Student Government, Pan-Hellenic Council, Beauty Favorite in ESTRE NOTS. You did pretty well, Rebecca!

FIRST ROW

ERNESTINE JONES DAVIS, A Δ II • As you may read at the left, her name used to be Ernestine Jones. It really was, until Paul Davis with his masculine charm took it away from her and made it Davis. We think you've got something there, Paul.

HERSCHEL DAY • Not often does the Ministerial Association produce such a good fellow. He was friendly, courteous, studious, diligent. Another paragraph of this, and they will be carving out a monument for him. He would deserve it. Piper.

ELOISE DENTON • Too much could not be written about Eloise, nor too much space taken up in listing her

honors. Enough to say that during her Freshman year she was the best known girl in her class, and ever since has kept her name in print as an active, intelligent, and superior co-ed. Debating, B. S. T. work, ESTRE Notes, and study took up most of her time. From Talladega.

LEILA LONG DE SHAZO ● Mrs. De Shazo is finishing up a college career that started longer ago than most of the graduates', but she's finishing in grand style. She's a member of A E Δ, International Relations Club, Book-lovers, and a Biology Lab Instructor. How's your Math, Mrs. De Shazo?

AGNES EDDLEMAN, Δ Z ● Agnes came here from St. Petersburg College, and being a good student, majored in English and Pi Kappa Phi. A smart girl, and a cute one. St. Petersburg College must still be missing her.

SECOND ROW

ED LUBANK ● Praise Allah that Ed left Decatur and came to Howard. He played football for four years, and made a good player all along, but something happened to him his Senior year and he became one of the best linemen in the South. Named on All-Conference eleven. One of the finest lads to decorate the campus in a very long time.

HAL FERGUSON ● Now here is a boy of the right kind. He is a Science Hall product, and one of the niftiest. Alpha Epsilon Delta, Lab Assistant, Y. M. C. A. Council, Junior Stunt Committee, Hal is one of those lovely characters who boo at all puns, and then make worse ones. Nevertheless, and even though he comes from Biloxi, Miss., he is a noble soul. Farewell, Harold.

DEWEY FINLEY ● Believe it or not, Dewey really goes out in the woods by himself and shouts at the top of his voice every once in a while. Around the campus he never yells above high C or makes a loud noise of any kind. Maybe it's because when you're good enough, you don't have to yell for attention. Finley is the first rate end for the Bulldogs. Calera.

VIRGINIA FISCH, Δ Z ● From Phillips, Va., went to Alabama College, but after two years came home to Howard, and we'll bet she's mighty glad, too, because look at all the nice words about her. Honors: Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, W. A. A., Vesta.

ARSELLA FOSTER ● Another is another of the non-celebrated students who go to college for two years, attending only to their own business. It is rumored that Arsell's favorite line is Wordsworth's: "I saw a crowd, a host of golden daffodils." Learning just that was worth more than election to sixteen clubs.

THIRD ROW

GRACE FULLER, A Δ H ● The only trouble with Grace is she doesn't look enough like Juliette. If they looked exactly alike, it would be great fun mixing their pictures up in the ESTRE Notes and making them guess which is which. But since this is not so, and since Grace was in Glee Club and Y. M. C. A., let it be recorded that she's just about the nicest girl we have. From Portaville.

JULIETTE FULLER, A Δ H ● The only trouble with Juliette is she doesn't look enough like Grace. If they looked exactly alike, it would be great fun mixing up their pictures in the ESTRE Notes and making them guess which is which. But since this is not so, and since Juliette was in Glee Club, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. A., and Dormitory Council, let it be recorded that she is just about the nicest girl we have.

WILLIAM GAINES ● Bill Gaines, being a non-lover of the bright key hanging on the watch-chain, spent his time going to college instead of going to extra-curricular classes. Being a Bham resident, this left him a lot of time for study, and that's what he did. You couldn't have guessed it unless you'd read this book before.

GEORGE GAMMILL, H K A ● Every once in a while we'd like to be able to use special italics or boldface type to discuss a Senior, and George is one of them. What a smile that lad has! Success for him is inevitable—we might even say, more than likely. President of Kappa Psi and actor in Freshman Stunt.

WILLIAM GIDDENS, H K A ● Don't be alarmed to hear that Giddens is exactly like Gary Cooper in his facial expressions. It's so—watch him at graduation exercises and see for yourself. A noble soul, Giddens, and one of the favored of the gods, we trust. Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Stunt Night, Glee Club, Senior Invitations Committee.

EDITH GLENN, A Δ Θ • Edith didn't get into her stride until her Junior year, but then she went to town in W. A. A., Booklovers, and Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. She goes to Trussville on holidays and vacations (because that's her home town, would you guess it?).

EUGENE GOLDSTEIN • Many are the students who praise Eugene for his fine habit of honking his horn as he passes the East Lake street cars and giving a lift to all the Howard people, thus getting them to class on time. He says that he learned to write checks while in college; now he wants to learn how to get money to write checks on. Pi Gamma Mu.

C O L L E G E

BARBARA GREEN ● Anybody will tell you that Barbara Green is the kind of co-ed we need more of. Her sly smile is something like Marion Bozenhard's. Her mouse-like quietness is something like Serena Boykin's. Her honors are something like this: Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, W. A. A. Council, Beta Pi Theta, ENTRE NOTS Staff, May Day Co-Chairman.

CATHERINE HAM ● The Myrna Loy girl with the wonderful brown eyes. The Hypatia President, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Stunt Night Chairman, Alpha Epsilon Delta, May Day, Secretary Senior Class, Masquers, ENTRE NOTS Assistant Editor, Parade Committee, Student of Chaucer and Millay, Benchley and Parker. Admirer of Ben Blue and Shakespeare, Wagner and Hoagy Carmichael. And if this has ruined your name, Catherine, let's have a good cry together.

MARALYN HARDY, Φ M ● All the girls want to give Maralyn bichloride of mercury or something. She's had that old handsome Ray Christian boy under her spell and nobody else got a chance. Besides which: Beauty Parade, Glee Club, President Freshman Committee, Clanton.

SECOND ROW

GLENN HEARN, H K Φ ● Mention Glenn in a group of sixteen girls, and out will come sixteen compacts and sixteen powder puffs will be applied to sixteen noses. Glenn has got what it takes. Voted Most Handsome Boy, member of the championship football team, the "H" Club. All the way from Albertville.

H. O. HESTER ● H. O. gets the palm for consistency. He came to Howard determined to study for the ministry. He joined B. S. U. and the Ministerial Association his Freshman year, and entered into no other activities. The Seminary needs more like him.

MAURICE HODGENS ● Maurice came from Jemison to begin his study for the Baptist ministry, and he succeeded so very well that he was elected President of the Ministerial Association for his Senior year.

JOHN HOLLINGSWORTH, A A T ● He's so well known around here that one wouldn't guess he wasted two years at the Hilltop. (Hi, there, Dr. Snavey!) A campus personality and a classroom conversationalist, he learned his tricks in Delta Kappa and Glee Club.

CLIFFORD HULING ● Clifford had plenty of colleges to choose from in his home state, Texas, but the name of Howard fascinated him so much that he got on the train at Greenville and didn't get off until he got to Birmingham.

THIRD ROW

CLAUDIA HUSTON ● Ah, Claudia, how have you managed to go to college for four years, and yet retain your interest in studies? You must be a genius. Member of Booklovers and Y. W. C. A. One of Miss Boyett's English disciples.

CHRISTINE JONES ● Christine, just one of the Jones girls, went all through Howard without getting her picture in The Crimson, which is a shame. The ENTRE NOTS therefore publishes on the page opposite a special picture of her, which will be framed along with these words in the Howard Hall of Fame. From Valley Head.

GWYNETH JORDAN ● Now, Gwyneth, why do you have to go and graduate this year? You should stay a while longer. It's been nice having you with us. Next time you go to college the Registrar's office force will be delighted to sign you up out here again. A Pratt City product.

MARTHA JORDAN ● When you have heard Martha play her own arrangements of those songs you are just nuts about, you will understand why everybody who hears her arranges to go nuts about Martha. She went to B'ham-Southern her Junior year, but came home to graduate. Crimson Staff, B. S. U., Glee Club Pianist, Alpha Epsilon Delta, and a Pre-Med student.

LIBBY JEAN REEVES KLYFFS, A Δ O ● Now here is one of those really outstanding girls you hear about. Listen to this: President of Alpha Delta Theta, Vice-President Glee Club, and Secretary in '36, Piano Orchestra, Pep Squad, Y. W. C. A., Beauty Parade, Voice Medal, Paul de Launay Medal in '35. Good going, Libby.

FIRST ROW

LONNIE D. LINDSEY, II K A • Lonnie has become one of the best known men at Howard. His jocular, personality and congeniality have gone over splendidly with the public, and he walked off with a stupendous number of honors: Freshman Stunt, Y. M. C. A., President Sophomore Class, Sophomore Stunt, Vice-President Men's Pan-Hellenic Council, Vice-President Student Body, Student Council, Head Cheerleader, Parade Committee, Junior Stunt, Senior Class Ring Committee, Stunt Committee, and, just for good measure, elected Most Popular Boy.

MARY LOUISE LUCAS • Mary Louise is the kind of girl Hypatia taps, and when you've gotten into Hypatia you don't have to worry about anything else. But she was also in Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, as Secretary, and in W. A. A., Booklovers, Beta Pi Theta, and besides being on the Honor Roll every semester, was the Junior Honor Student on May Day.

ROLAND EARL MACKLEY, II K A • From U. of Alabama, Earl wandered up to Howard, where he became a jolly fellow and a darn good man about campus. Pan-Hellenic Council, Junta, Vice-President Pi Kappa Alpha.

CHRISTINE MANASCO • Dear Christine: You are such a nice girl we started to leave this paragraph blank and let your admirers fill it in with their own compliments, but on second thought we will say that we sure are glad you left Townley and came to East Lake.

HARRY KENNEDY MARTIN, JR., II K Φ • A smart boy who kept to himself for a couple of years, and then flowered as one of the shrewdest of campus geniuses—a wit, a literary connoisseur, a marvelous actor (remember "The Importance of Being Earnest"?), and a true student of languages, including Beta Pi Theta and the Norwegian. From Dothan, and his mother makes divine divinity fudge.

SECOND ROW

IRENE MARTIN, A Δ H • This is she who looks like a model for those sophisticated Vogue photographs, and even for one of those smooth McClelland Barclay magazine covers. President of Masquers, President of Dormitory Council, Selene Treasurer. "The Late Christopher Bean" and "Engaged" showed her to her public as an actress. All this after leaving Albertville to go to Judson her Freshman year.

HUBERT MATE, II K Φ • Hubert came along behind his big brother Stanley and got even more honors. As Sports Editor of The Crimson, Business Manager of ESTRO Nots, Football player his Freshman year, Glee Club singer, Delta Kappa debater, Forum talker, and winner of the Pi Kappa Phi National Scholarship, he has demonstrated consistently the stuff of which Rhodes Scholars are made. We hope he has a little brother.

MARY ALICE MAXWELL, A Δ H • Mary Alice attended Judson for two years before entering Howard, and immediately got to work on her extra-curricular activities. Y. W. C. A., Dormitory Council, Y. W. A., and Masquers. She was touching as the nurse in "The Importance of Being Earnest," and will no doubt be snapped up by the film studios the day she gets her diploma. Valley Head.

MARY LOU MILLER, II Δ O • Tall, blonde, Mary Lou, Beta Sigma president who served two terms, was seen everywhere, doing everything that was being done. A smart lassie in her books, too. Honor Roll for four years. Sponsor Howard Southern glee, Beta Pi Theta, Glee Club, Beauty Parade Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Pan-Hellenic Council four times, Art Club, Parade Committee. Good bye, Mary Lou. Keep this in your scrapbook—we hate to see you go.

PHILIP MISSO • Undoubtedly the best humored boy in school, Philip is famous also for his spaghetti suppers. He was President of A. E. Δ, premed fraternity, in Kappa Phi Kappa, and Freshman Stunt. He has a nice green Buick, too, girls.

THIRD ROW

HELEN McCLUNY • Helen meandered at Alabama College for six semesters and then suddenly fell in love with Howard. So here she is among our graduates. A shrewd choice, Helen.

OTIS McCLUSKY • Otis, tall and lanky, was remarkable for his cheery disposition and tolerant attitude, which perhaps explains how he is graduating with no trouble at all. Kappa Psi in '36 and '37.

V. C. McCLUSKY • V. C. comes from Fayette and claims no kinship at all with Otis (see above), but an excellent graduating student nonetheless. It is rumored that V. C. loves juncos, which may or may not be true. Check here. Yes ( ), No ( ).

ALEX McCLICHEN • No single paragraph could justify the achievements of Alec: Constitutional Revision Committee, Masquers, "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Three Generations," Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Vice President Sophomore Class, President Junior Class, Pi Gamma Mu, Assistant in Treasurer's and Personnel Office, Delta Kappa Debate Manager, Student Council, President Trident, Chairman Student Acting Board, Stunt Night, Ushers' Club, "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." You can have Main Building, Alec; it belongs to you now.

ZILMA MCKIWEIN, Δ Z • Peg is one of those dream girls who just can't be true—but she is. Lovely hair, lovely face, lovely personality. ESTRO Nots beauty, Student Council, May Day, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Selene, Stunt Night. If such an impossible thing as having no available boy friends ever happens to you, please call 6-487.

CHARLES NIXON • Charlie didn't bother to get mixed up in all the goings-on of campus loiterers and consequently didn't have to get mixed up in all the goings-on of conferences with the Registrar in order to get his sheepskin. A Chi Alpha Sigma initiate.

MRS. L. R. OLIVER • Well, Mrs. Oliver, how does it feel to be a really and truly authentic college graduate? Congratulations on learning something even after learning that love is a great thing, and marriage a better.

WOODROW OWEN • Woodrow made a name for himself as a serious student and a fine ministerial student. He preached and studied, and still had time to be President of International Relations Club, sing with the Glee Club boys, and get on the Honor Roll. Candidate for degree with honors. Lafayette.

ANITA PASS,  $\Phi M \bullet$  Anita is the tall one, the jolly one. Pi Gamma Mu, W. A. A., Y. W. A., Booklovers, Y. W. C. A. And she has a dry wit and appreciation of American Literature. And not only that, but she has typed on a typewriter up in Main so long that she is as much a part of it as Dean Burns or the water fountain.

MARY KATHERINE PASS,  $\Phi M \bullet$  Mary Katherine is the shrewd one, the cute one. Pi Gamma Mu, Y. W. C. A., Masquers, Booklovers, W. A. A. Secretary, Treasurer and President, elected State Treasurer in '36. ESTRE NOTES Staff member, and remembered in "Mrs. Moonlight." And not only that, but she played around on the campus so much that she became a part of it, as much so as Sherman Oak or Margaret Burford.

SECOND ROW

MORRIS PICKENS,  $\Theta K N \bullet$  He of the cinema profile and the Dizzy Dean arm. One of the best pitchers we've had, and that's not a bad pitcher of him over there on the opposite page. Football Manager, Basketball, and "H" Club. What d'you think, Mell? Pretty good, huh?

GIRDINI RAY  $\bullet$  One of the hardest working students on the list of graduates, and one of the largest. Girdini demonstrated his talents in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Stunts. He ought to get a degree with honors for being such a jovial lawn-mower.

MELL SCARBOROUGH,  $A \Delta H \bullet$  No, don't say anything, Mell. You have a movie profile, too, although your arm might be more on the order of Greta Garbo's than Dizzy Dean's. Dormitory Council, Glee Club, Piano Orchestra, Y. W. C. A., and residence in Albertville.

CHARLES SHARP,  $\Pi K \Phi \bullet$  Bud remains the most eccentric personality on the campus, witty, woeful, and a successful wooer. Pi Kappa Phi President, and Business Manager of the 1937 ESTRE NOTES. His remarks on sundry subjects are worthy of recording. His jokes are better, but had better not be recorded.

LEE C. SIMS,  $\Sigma N \bullet E C$  has always been one of the best dressed boys on the avenue, and his cheeks have always been just enough red to make all the girls turn and look at him when he goes by. Sigma Nu Commander, Vice President of Mortar and Pestle, Kappa Psi, Alacazan.

THIRD ROW

HUGH FRANK SMITH,  $\Pi K \Phi \bullet$  Buge, the wonder man, was Editor of The Crimson for three years—something that is not likely to happen once a century. And he had time to be one of the most popular boys on the campus, Co-Editor of Campus, Masquers ("Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Comedy of Errors"), B. S. U., Y. M. C. A., Parade Committee, and Student Night. Trident. "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." The true joy of Munford and environs.

VIRGINIA SNOW  $\bullet$  Virginia consumed three of her four years at Florence State Teachers College, but her name shines bright in the Howard graduating Class of 1935. She lives in Palos when she has time to go home.

EDWARD SPENCER  $\bullet$  He who shines on graduation day. Class President. Ed is famous as a Masquer, Delta Kapper, cheerleader, orator, politician, and librarian. His good humor is a byword with the students and faculty, and his presence at any gathering is assurance of a gay time for all.

T. N. STALLWORTH,  $A \Delta T \bullet$  The boys say Tom is a bushwhacker, but who would believe it of him? Tom plays in the Band, sings in the Glee Club, and does both for I, H., or did when last interviewed. B. S. U. member, from Beatrice.

J. V. STEART,  $\Pi K \Phi \bullet$  An Honor Roll student who dances like Yeloz and Yolanda, and a library staff member on the side. Pi Gamma Mu, International Relations Club, Freshman and Junior Stunts. For more information, ask any of the girls who've had a no-break with him.

FIRST ROW

MARTHA SUTLEY • Yo, ho! The wonder reporter. Sutley deserves the Nobel Prize for fortitude, for she has worked on all kinds of publications, committees, stunts, decoration delegations, for nothing but the pure joy of it. She is noted also for her modernistic hats. Glee Club, Voice Scholarship, Howard Crimson Staff, Sophomore Stunt, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Parade Committee, Booklovers. An epitaph: "Here lies Sutley in the dirt she loved so well."

MAXINE TEAL, A Δ O • Maxine couldn't make up her mind, so she went to Alabama College for two years, changed to Vanderbilt University, which she attended a year, and then switched to Howard and at last will wear the black cap and robe. Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. From Alton.

C O L L E G E

LUCILE THACKER • Lucile sang in the Glee Club and was a member of the staff of the ESTRE NOUS. For two years she served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Physical Society, which honor was the reward of real merit. She lives in Birmingham.

ROSALIE THORNTON • This is the feminine manager of The Crimson, who has done better than any male ever did do. It must be her ability to talk—she's fascinating when she gets started in light conversation—and when she gets hold of an advertiser, he's bound to sign for space. Marvelous Spanish student, May Court, B. S. U. Treasurer, Beta Pi Theta, Parade Committee, Scholarship Day, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet—and a member of Hypatia.

LUTHER C. TUCKER • Coming from Winfield, Luther joined the Ministerial Association his Senior year, and preached as he studied. Successful in both, as his brand-new diploma will guarantee, and also his classmates' respect.

SECOND ROW

LUTHER USRY • Luther would not divulge any information concerning himself except that he expects to graduate and that he lives in Birmingham. If that won't hold you for a while, Luther might tell more about himself, but so far, no luck.

WILSON WAITES • "Greasy" is one of the best basketball players we ever had at Howard: fast and slippery. He made three letters in football and three in basketball. He got married last spring, but that didn't slow him down much. The Panthers are the only ones who are glad to see him graduate.

BUTLE WARREN • A really nice boy, Butle. The kind you like to talk to about Supreme Court or Carole Lombard or History of the West. The kind of football player who gets to be President of the "H" Club. He came here from Rogersville.

JAMES WATERS • James studied for the ministry while in Howard, and was a member of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet. But if you had seen him studying mathematics under Dr. Hess you would have sworn he was going to be nothing but a carbon copy of Professor Einstein. He could make two plus two add up to anything from 56 to a quart of ice cream.

HOWARD WEAVER, B. K. 4 • Howard has a good name to be graduating from our institution, and he wears it well. President of Chi Alpha Sigma, a member of B. S. U., and an integral part of the Howard Band. Good enough for anybody.

THIRD ROW

LIE WHITE • Editor of The Quill. Associate Editor of the ESTRE NOUS. President of Masquers. Parade Director. Assistant Editor of The Crimson. Co-Editor of Campus. Correspondent to The Birmingham News. Pretty good fellow when you get to know him.

CHARLIE WILLCOX, D. K. N. • Words are useless in Charlie's case. Everyone knows him, everyone likes him. He's an excellent halfback to have on your team, whether you're from Woodlawn Hi or Minnesota. President of Theta Kappa Nu, member "H" Club, Pan Hellenic Council, and a good baseball player. Mobile celebrates the Mardi Gras, and should celebrate him as a home-town celebrity who made good in the big city college.

CAROLYN WILLIS, B. 4. A. • Carolyn was in the Beauty Parade in '35 and that's recommendation enough for graduation, but in addition to that she attended classes, got a lot of credits, and decided to get an official diploma. Dean Burns, sign that thing for her.

HENRY WILLIAMS • Another math shark, and a good debater in class. Henry doesn't mind interrupting the teacher when he feels that teacher is saying something incorrectly. He's been in the annual stunt night, the Parade Committee, and various honorary fraternities. He has a mild humor that makes him look exactly like his counterpart in the Saturday Evening Post sometimes.

ISABEL WILSON • Co-Chairman Howard Southern Parade, ESTRE NOUS Staff, Howard Quill, Art Assistant, Beauty Parade, Stunt Night, Masquers Vice-President, "Sleeping Beauty," "The Importance of Being Earnest." She looks like the musical score of an Irving Berlin show, for a pretty girl is like a melody. No wonder she was a beauty selection and a unanimous choice as a superior co-ed.

FIRST ROW

MARY WATTIE WILSON,  $\Phi M$  • Mary Wattie was in her glory when she led the Phi Mu dance in February, and she did the Phi Mu's a lot of good as their chief executive. She was active in Y. W. C. A. work, studies, parade committees, career conferences, and rushing. She did well in all of them.

RUTH WRIGHT • Ruth has been on the Honor Roll consistently, forging out a place for herself as a dependable student. She's spent a lot of time also in Y. W. C. A., Chi Delta Phi, and Booklovers. She was Secretary for the Booklovers in '36-'37.

SECOND ROW

MARY YANDLE, B  $\Sigma$  O • Mary has been highly successful in getting rides to school, when everybody else has to catch the street car. It must be her blonde hair and bright smile that attracts the young men.

PERCY YEARGAN • Who would have thought that Percy would end up this list of Seniors? He's usually in the forefront of everything. He was a first-rate end for the championship Bulldogs, and will be sorely missed next season. He's played on the baseball team all along, and basketball since his Sophomore year. So long, Percy.

GRADUATE STUDENT

MRS. ELY ALLEN • Mrs. Allen found out she liked Howard after she had spent four years elsewhere. As it was, she was a good student. There's no telling what scholastic heights she might have scaled had Howard claimed her four years ago.

Alma Mater

*Oh, Howard, Alma Mater true,
I love thy glorious name,
Deserving every honor due
To an unsullied fame.
I'll love thee through each fleeting breath
For all that thou hast done,
And in the agonies of death
Be still thy loving son.*

*Oh, Alma Mater, dear, thy life
A treasure is to me:
Thou, Phoenix fair, through flames and strife,
Hast shown thy right to be.
Since poverty has made thee rich
And struggle made thee strong,
I view thee in thy self-made niche,
And burst to filial song.*

*Oh, parent true, the future fair
Must hold but good for thee,
For hope's fruition waits thee there
In blest reality.
And sons like thine will make thee shine
With glory all thine own,
And bring to thy maternal shrine
Not gifts of gold alone.*

A MESSAGE TO YOU, A MEMBER OF THE CLASS OF '40

Dear Freshman:

You have already seen Howard in all her glory. You came to our Alma Mater, a member of one of the largest, most talented classes ever to build a bonfire! Right at first you saw the Bulldogs victorious. You took our winning of the second consecutive Dixie Conference Championship for granted. The success of "The Battle of the Marne" was no more than you had expected. Howard's beautifully adorned floats and clever gags in the parade were inevitable. Then, when two, and possibly three, more loving cups and championships fell our way, you nodded your head and glibly chirped, "I told you so." You have seen a year of overflowing dormitories and more overflowing student spirit.

Now, here's what I'm coming to (and I haven't been "building up to an awful let-down" either). Howard may not get three more years of championships in her glorious athletic seasons but, remember, she does have something much more abiding, and, yes, more valuable. She has something that has made me, a sad-eyed senior, reluctant to part with, and I want you to realize the value of your heritage. Do you realize that in little more than four years Howard will celebrate her hundredth anniversary? Won't you be proud of being a part of something that has lived, expanded, improved, and grown for one hundred years? Aren't you proud of your faculty, who have studied in all the best universities both here and abroad, many of whom are authors of high school and college textbooks, others of whom are engaged in active research into things scientific, and all of whom are never too busy to talk to you personally, to know you as a friend and a personality and to help you obtain that particular niche in the world you'd so love to fill. Each year the English, Science, History, Journalism, Dietetics, Pharmacy, Economic, Business Administration, Music, and Art Departments will grow and meet with success, no matter if the Bulldog wears one, five, or none loving cups around his neck. The educational advantage of living in Birmingham will be yours each year. You will have a chance at the best plays, the best music, the best speakers, and the best gridiron battles—in fact, the best in all fields of endeavor finds Birmingham a large enough place to visit, at least once a year. Each year social activities will thrive! There will always be those impressive "formals," those delightful novelty parties, those interesting fraternity, sorority, and club gatherings. In the large modern dormitories, the private "frat" houses and attractive sorority lodges, conversations, educational and otherwise, will flourish along with the friendships formed with people from all over Alabama and from various sections of the U. S. A. Each year there will be: Sherman Oak, Beatrice, Stunt Night, "The Battle of the Marne" and parade, May Day, Hypatia Tap Day, Trident Tap Day, Class Competitions on publications and other contests, hot Political elections with flowery speeches and platforms, campus courses on nice white benches under numerous shady trees all over the big, beautiful green campus with some new buildings and more old ivy clad ones in view. It's a grand place and I don't want to hear you griping if by some accident Howard should win only four, instead of five, championships next year.

Enviously yours,

HOWARD SENIOR.

"Coach Bill," as he is affectionately termed by loyal Howard supporters, undoubtedly is the best coach who has headed the Bulldog cortege in recent years, if not the best of all time. Taking the reins only two years ago, he has turned out two teams of wonderful poise and power. He probably would be one of the smallest men on any field on which he might walk, but he would be the toughest also, and one of the best-natured at the same time.

Coach Billy Bancroft

THE COACHES

Coaches Bill Bancroft and Ray Davis, heading the first all-alumnus coaching staff in Howard's history, have done a wonderful job of coaching in their two years in charge. Coach Bancroft is head coach and athletic director, while Coach Davis is assistant coach and in charge of the linemen; Bill handles the backfield men. Both were stars in their day at Howard; both have tutored stars such as Christian and Cooper, who would vie with their teachers for places on the Howard All-Time Eleven. In two successive years at the head of Howard's football destinies, our coaches have led both of their teams to Dixie Conference Championships, and to defeats of the Southern Panther. Highly successful in every phase of the word, they have gained the admiration and respect of every Howard supporter, and of opponents as well. Respect is theirs for their powerful contingents of football machinery; admiration is theirs for their fine, clean sportsmanship.

THE FROSH COACHES

Coaches "Pooch" and "Jim" also are valuable parts of the Howard coaching staff. They guide the destinies of the Freshman football team, and of the Varsity ends. Proof of their excellent tutelage is the calibre of end playing which has played so important a part in the championship elevens of the past two years. Also the championships in the possession of the Bulldog are to be pointed out in their favor, for no varsity squad is at all good without a topnotch collection of Frosh to combat them between games. Too much praise and credit may not be accorded them.

SENIORS

CAPTAIN COOPER

The Seniors! How much the expression means, especially to them. It means the end of four years' hard work, of playing football for Howard; it means that football is just a memory, since their last game is history; it means that twice they have figured in victories over Birmingham-Southern; it means that they will receive no more praises, no more newspaper write-ups, except perhaps in reminiscence. But here is recorded for all time a record of the fine playing of every one of them; not one but who was a regular player, and who came through when called upon to do his bit.

Gentlemen, I give you Norman Cooper! One of the greatest centers to appear on any football field, he made the All-Dixie Conference eleven twice running, and the Little All-American eleven for 1936. Big, heavy, fast, he has the natural attributes physically for a great player, and adds to them a keen, agile brain, quick in any emergency. He captained the Bulldog team to one of its greatest seasons.

Gentlemen, I give you Wilton Batson! Co-captain and starting end, he was one of the chief reasons for the tie with 'Bama in 1935. Replacing him will be a major problem, since he played most of the time. Irreproachable on the offense, opponents tried his end once and then ran the ball in another direction.

Gentlemen, I give you Raymond Christian! Stepping out as the greatest fullback in late seasons to perform for Howard, he will be remembered for a long time as the man who set a new all-time record for yardage gained in one game at Legion Field, in the game against Southern. Big, alert, powerful, he was the spark plug of the offensive. His speed was deceptive, because of his size and strength. He was chosen on the Associated Press All-Dixie eleven for his playing last season.

CHRISTIAN

Gentlemen, I give you Herbert Browne! Another back who was the brains of the Dixie Champions, his time was devoted to calling signals and blocking. That was enough; he was cool under stress, and was perhaps the best-all-around blocker in the backfield.

Gentlemen, I give you Henry Lee Burgette! Stepping into Pat Harrison's shoes at tackle, he filled them to overflowing. Big, sturdy, his blocking was of the highest quality; his defensive work left nothing to be asked for. He played every minute of every game, with no more than five minutes or so lost during the entire season. Truly an iron man!

Gentlemen, I give you Ed Eubank! Another All-Dixie choice, at guard, he was an excellent performer at his post, where he played a large part of the time. Heavy, fast, good at leading interference, and a terror on the defensive, he earned the honor bestowed upon him by the sports writers.

Gentlemen, I give you Judson Colley! A consistent performer at guard, he made himself respected by teammates and foes alike. Hampered by an ankle injured in the Southwestern game, nevertheless he played his usual jam up game in less than three weeks after the injury. Good on both offense and defense, he will long be remembered.

Gentlemen, I give you Ed Chojnowski! A three letterman, Ed is going to be missed in all the major Howard sports, in which he is equally good. Holding down a guard post, he earned his letter every varsity year; a consistent player, his speed and weight stood him and the team in good advantage.

Gentlemen, I give you Buell Warren! Still another letter man at guard, he worked steadily, always turning in a good job. Also heavy, his speed made him valuable to the coaches, as well as his fine playing on the defense. Another cog in the "rock wall" which made the championships possible.

Gentlemen, I give you Percy Yeargan! With Batson, he made the rest of a great pair of ends, who were feared by all opponents. A good snarer of passes, fine at breaking up plays and a stellar defensive man, he was used much by the coaches, and always came through in fine style. He also is a three letter man.

Gentlemen, I give you Dewey Finley! Still another three letter man, his height and weight, coupled with his speed, made him an excellent end, as well as his keen diagnosing of plays. His defensive work especially made him respected.

Gentlemen, I give you Charlie Willcox! One of the finest passers ever to play for Howard, Charlie blazed his name on sporting annals here and elsewhere. Fast, tough as nails, full of pep, able to do everything but kick, he was necessary to the team's success.

Gentlemen, I give you Wilson Waites! "Greasy" was a stellar performer at quarterback for the Bulldogs. Brainy, a good blocker in spite of his small stature, clever on defensive work, he was one of the best men and hardest workers on the squad.

Gentlemen, I give you Glenn Hearn! Giving four years of stellar work to Howard, Glenn is one of the best backfield men to show at Howard in recent years. A brilliant runner, good passer and one of the best of kickers, he is a real triple-threat man. His weight and size made him hard to hurt; his power and quick thinking made him a valuable offensive weapon for the Bulldogs.

and MORE ABOUT

Not only to the seniors does the credit of bringing to Howard its second consecutive Dixie Conference Championship go, but also to the other seven lettermen and managers. First, let us salute the three managers, PUG RICHARDS, ALFRED TRIMM, and DAVE TELFORD. These three have shown untiring effort and ability in handling the business end of the Bulldogs' Pigskin Parade. If any one lineman could be picked for his determined ability to fill any gap left in the line it would be BOYCE STONE, who saw much service as a starter and as a reserve. Stone was a deadly tackler and brainy man on the defensive. Considered to be the best promise for All-Dixie end is sophomore HERMAN HODGES, who saw much service at the end position. Hodges was a terror on the defensive and a pretty pass receiver. Another sophomore, NATHAN SCHENKER, was in the starting position at guard in many games. When called on, Nate slapped his 200-odd pounds into the gaps and held many a ground gainer to a scant yard. Perhaps the spark plug of the backfield might be named in HARLEY HOPKINS who was high scorer for the Howard clan. Hopkins knows how to handle himself and with the experience and name made by him this past season he should be the main cog in 1937. J. T. JOHNSON has the honor of being winning scorer in at least one game this past season. Playing the same position as Hopkins, Johnson endured a great handicap, but after a great game in Mobile he was a very handy man to have around. JOE GANN, lively and alert at all times, was a line plunger whose defensive work in backing up the line was noteworthy. Being a Sophomore sort of put the cover over Joe, but in early spring practices he looks like a starter next season.

N. E. WOLFF understudied Norman Cooper at center and will step into undisputed possession of the pivot post next season. His presence in the line-up will ease the hurt of Cooper's loss.

Tall, heavy, alert, his worth to the team is hard to put into words.

All these letter men, except Johnson and Wolff, are at this time Sophomores and have two seasons yet to play. Only injury or some other malarrangement can keep these men from being the stars of 1937.

BULLDOG

Confronted with the problem of molding a grid machine to live up to pre-season dope; handicapped by losses through graduation, yet turning out their second Dixie Conference Championship in as many years is the enviable record of coaches Billy Bancroft and Ray Davis. Five victories, four within D. C. ranks, registered against three defeats, including two defeats to strong Southeastern teams (Miss. State-U. of Alabama) and one tie with Mercer tell the story of another colorful season completed by an outfit from the East side.

A squad of about forty, including thirteen lettermen, completed spring training in fine shape and waited for the season to start. The first game took the Bulldogs to Tuscaloosa where they were to meet Alabama, the one and only major team to go through their season undefeated. The Tide, working under Coach Frank Thomas' Notre Dame system, was a slow starter, holding only a seven-point margin at the half; but in the second half a smoother offensive, aided by a strong defense, enabled Alabama to revenge, by a 34-0 victory, the 7-7 deadlock handed them by Howard in '35.

The following week-end Howard again packed for a jaunt into Mississippi for their annual game with Mississippi State at Starkville. Injuries decreased Howard's chance of winning from the powerful Southeastern rival and again Howard went to defeat, 35-0, after holding a stronger team 6-0 at the half.

Coaches Bill and Ray withdrew their charges into seclusion and spent the following week-end in the Crescent City playing Loyola University. A deprived Bulldog was out for blood and blood it was at Loyola's expense. Score 13-6. Early in the quarter, J. T. Johnson went over for Howard's first touchdown and later Cooper recovered a Loyola fumble to assure the Bulldogs' victory.

Taking their fourth straight road trip into Georgia to play Mercer, Howard ran into stiff opposition, barely coming out of the fray with a scoreless tie. Mercer outgained and outplayed Howard most of the game, but the breaks wore red and blue ribbons, so a sore and tired squad returned to the campus for another week of preparation.

B A T T L E S

Howard's first home stand was taken against Southwestern, who startled the nation by defeating Vanderbilt 12-0 two weeks previous. The game was certain to be Howard's toughest D. C. game of the year. Disheartened Howard rooters saw Southwestern make several first downs and get within one yard of the goal in the first quarter but Cooper recovered a fumble and a quick kick by Herbert Browne good for about sixty yards brightened the skies and paved the way for a later score. The winning points were scored on a pass from Willcox to Finley late in the third quarter.

The Pigskin Parade again took to the road, journeying to Mobile for a night game with Spring Hill. Howard won their third D. C. victory, 19-0.

The Bulldogs won their third S. I. A. A. tilt from Western Kentucky in Bowling Green, 14-6, after a hotly contested game in which Howard was outplayed. Only the stone-walled strength of Howard's line at critical moments of the game saved the day.

After two weeks' preparation, the Bulldogs stalked the Southern Panther to its lair and handed them a 13-0 licking which will be remembered on the East Side years to come. A promising squad from Southern was held to a three-yard net total and outplayed in every field of battle. Senior Raymond Christian hit national fame when he topped Dixie Howell's yardage record by forty yards, gaining 273 yards before being taken out in the third quarter.

A contest in Tennessee won by Chattanooga, 6-0, brought to an end the campaign of the Bulldog eleven, but not to an end honors gained by members of the line and backfield. Six men earned All-Dixie Honors, four being placed on the first team. Eubank, Burgette, Christian, and Cooper made first selection. Browne and Willcox were selected as second team members.

As a grand finale, Co-Captain Cooper was selected on both Little All-Americans and given a card of merit on the coaches' team.

Southwestern's mighty Lynx, under the tutelage of former Coach Shorty Propst of Howard, came to Birmingham with their teeth showing, ready to fight. The winner of the Dixie Conference Crown probably was to be decided upon that day, since both teams were undefeated in the Conference, and were not likely to be defeated after that game. Southwestern's goal line was as yet uncrossed; she had whipped mighty Vanderbilt, 14-0. Howard was given an outside chance to win the ball game.

The game was one of the best of the year at Legion Field; close, hard fought, yet singularly devoid of severe penalties. The two teams were very closely matched, but Howard had the edge. The first quarter was one of see-sawing, with neither team threatening seriously. Herbert Browne's kicking was superb, as was that of the Lynx' ace, who aimed them out in "coffin corner" time after time. One kick missed the red flag only by a few inches. In the second quarter Howard pushed the ball down to the Southwestern four-yard line with first down and goal to go, but was unable to make a touchdown. In the third quarter, however, Willcox tossed a beautiful pass over the goal line for the only score of the game. Tenaciously holding the lead, and threatening once more to score, the Bulldogs emerged on top from their hardest game and best victory of the season.

The other bright spot of the season was the complete and ignominious rout of Birmingham-Southern's forces in the momentous annual Battle-of-the-Marne. A season in which Howard beats Southern is counted a successful one; the past season was one of the best, looking at it from this angle as well as from others.

The first half was one of complete mastery by Howard, but she was unable to put over a counter. Getting the ball time after time and making marches into Southern's territory, only to lose the ball on downs, Howard pushed the Panthers everywhere but over their goal line. Perry's marvelous kicking was all that saved Southern time and again. His kicks were long, many times over the safety man's head, and especially to be remarked since he was rushed on every one by the smashing Bulldog line.

The second half was a repetition of the first half, except that in addition to gaining ground, the Crimson's also scored two touchdowns. One was on a pass by Willcox in the third quarter, the other was on a long dash by Christian in the fourth quarter.

of the SEASON

The Panthers were completely outclassed in every department except in kicking, and there they were matched. Birmingham-Southern made a net total in yards gained of three yards; she scored only two first downs, both on passes. Ray Christian, the star of the game, broke the all-time record made by Dixie Howell in 1934 of individual yardage in one game at Legion Field by some 40 or 50 yards.

The victory over Southern cinched the Dixie Conference Crown for the Bulldogs and won again the City College Championship, which means almost as much to the loyal supporters of the Crimson-and-Blue. The victory over Southwestern placed Howard among the favored as the contender for the Dixie Championship, and as vanquisher of the team which took Vanderbilt for a ride.

. BULL

FOOTBALL

The Bull Pups, coached by Pooch Fayette and Jim Stuart, former Howard stars, won two and lost two games of their four-game schedule after being put out of condition with numerous injuries before their first game with Marion. The Frosh eased out a 13-5 victory over Marion, playing most of the game under pressure. After a two weeks' workout with the varsity, the Freshmen journeyed to Cullman for a try at St. Bernard. Everything went Howard's way and a 26-6 win resulted. Another road trip took Howard to Chattanooga to play Chattanooga University Frosh. Here the lower class met its first setback, 13-7.

The Frosh lost their second game to Birmingham-Southern, 40-6. The first quarter was evenly played with both teams making a score and missing the extra point. At the half, however, it was another story, Southern led, 19-6. Starting with the second half, Southern became a ramming machine piling up point after point to win, 40-6. The game was played in a heavy downpour.

Many Freshmen showed their ability to block, pass, kick and run with the ball. Outstanding players include: Bryant Wilson, Frank Bryan, Frank Williams, ends; Talmadge Tuggle, Charlie Davis, Auther Hayes, Gene Oliver, Clyde Hubbard, guards; Kilburn Elrod, Eugene Schettgen, Hershal Laney, Ralph Williams, Spurgeon Hill, tackles; Garland Goodwin, Pat Currington, centers; Bob McGraw, Gerald Lowery, David Battle, Otis Hardy, Ben Allen, Bruce Little, James Wood and T. A. Windham, backs.

B A S K E T B A L L

The Freshman Hoopsters had one of their best seasons under the guidance of Coach Jim Stuart, winning 16 and losing 2. One loss went to a strong Alabama team and the other to the Sixth Ave. Preds. However, the Alabama loss was balanced by a 38-22 win on the home court. The loss to the Preds went in the last 40 seconds when a long field goal went through the net for a 1-point victory, 19-18.

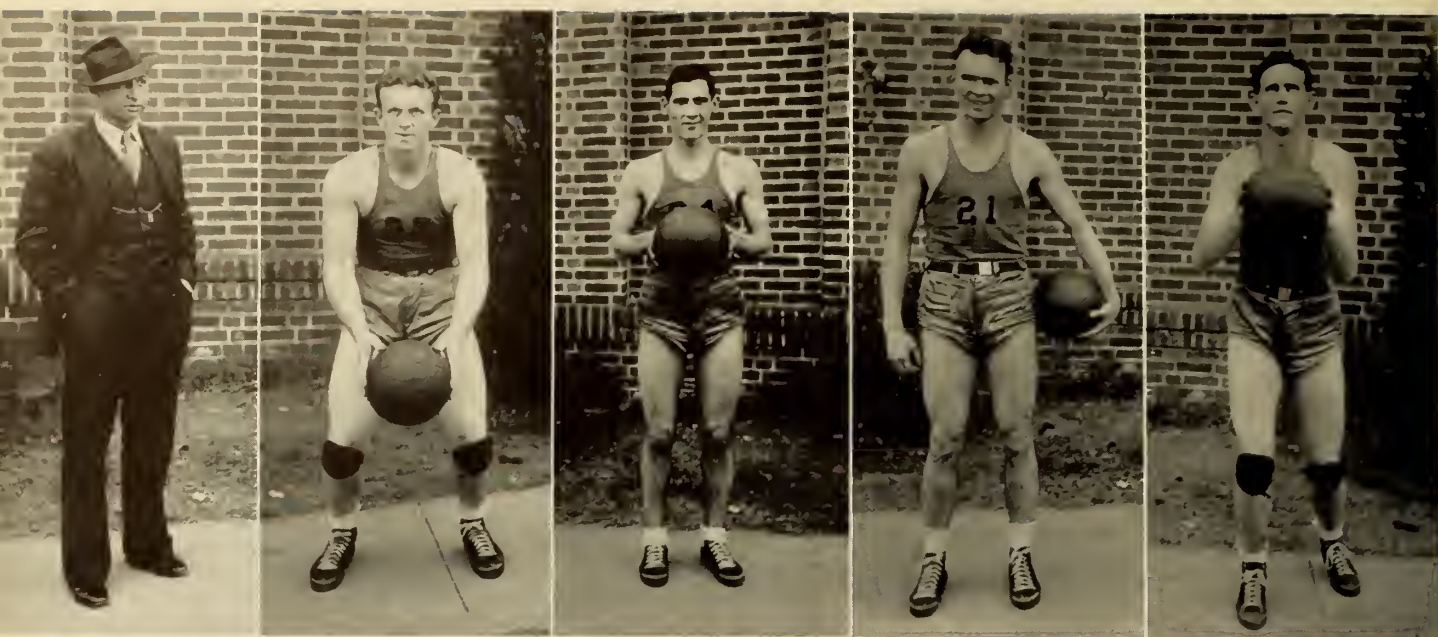

Howard gained other victories over Alexanderia, Dora, Hackelburry, Ramsey, Phillips, Emma Sanson, Mortimer Jordan, and Acipco.

The Howard-Southern series was again won by Howard Frosh in two straight games. The stellar play of White, Cather, Wilson, Turner, and Burkes, who composed the starting team, gave Howard its best frosh team in many years. The passing and brilliant floor work of the team held all opponents bewildered and amazed. Others members deserving great credit are: Mantell, Burton, Little, Heath, and Hammond.

.. VARSITY

Howard College's basketball five did themselves as proud as did the remainder of the athletic or sport group. Winning two championships, they kept still clear the record with Southern's athletes for two continuous years.

Starting out to an excellent early beginning, the Bulldogs gave the World's Champion Celtic five a hard enough battle (lost by four points) to make them say that Howard was the best team ever encountered in this city by that team. A second game later in the season made the Celtics feel justified in giving Howard the opportunity to play them again next year.

Howard's huskies took the Big Five Championship in a breeze, losing no games in this city; the Y. M. H. A. Blue Jackets were closest to the Bulldogs in the Conference, and themselves were defeated twice by the Crimsons. The other Championship was even more important, that of the series with Birmingham-Southern. Again, repeating last year's conquest of that vicious Panther, the Bulldogs won the series in three straight games.

Happy indeed are the coaches when they reflect upon the fact that the team will be practically intact next year as it is, and a very, very "crackerjackish" freshman team will furnish more than enough recruits of a high calibre.

There are but nine men on the squad; the coaches kept the squad purposely small, and even when some of the men were stricken with influenza, made no alterations in the roster. They are:

Brutus Baker, stellar center, whose playing all season was a spearhead of the Howard attack. Brutus is tall, rangy, fast, and especially good on overhead one-handed shots. He was high-scorer in the Big Five Conference.

James Gurley is a tall, heavy forward who forced himself to the fore as a Sophomore. Playing the "spot" position as a rule on the offensive, his sharpshooting and good defensive work made him invaluable.

Telford Waites Gurley Yeargan Baker

BASKETBALL . .

Herman Hodges is another Sophomore forward who forced his way into the regular line-up. Scoring 15 points in his first varsity game, he played a large portion of every game thereafter, except during an attack of flu.

Ben Browdy, too, is a Sophomore who saw plenty of service. Fast, average in height, good shooter, he made a good man to call upon in need, and started many games.

Percy Yeargan is a Senior who has given an excellent account of himself during three seasons, and especially during the last one. A three-letter man, his post at forward was well taken care of when he was in the game.

Norman Cooper is a six-footer-two-or-so Senior. He played both forward and center when needed, with most of his time at forward. His excessive height handicapped him in no wise, because he had the speed to go with it. His defensive play was beyond reproach, and he was noted for appearing under the basket at the right time.

Ed "Chow" Chojnowski is one of the best guards who has ever played at Howard in recent years. Now a Senior, his presence will be sorely missed when he is gone next season. Noted for long shots and stellar defensive play, Ed played practically all of every game. He also is a three-letter man.

Dave Telford is a little Sophomore guard who got on the starting line-up and stayed there all season. The fastest man on the squad, he had a knack of being at just the right place when he was needed there. He was especially noted for catching opponents' shots off the back-board and breezing up the court before anyone was aware of his having the ball.

Wilson Waites is another Senior guard whose services will be sorely missed next year. Short, compact, fast, a good shot and irreproachable on the defensive, he always gave a good account of himself when he was on the courts, and he saw plenty of active playing.

B A S E B A L L

The baseball season opened with an engagement with the Birmingham Barons and ended with a victorious series over B'ham Southern, which brought the Florsheim Trophy back to Howard. Victories over local teams maintained Howard's place in the sun.

CHARLEY WILLCOX: Willcox with yet another season to go, turned in an enviable record behind the plate. His timely hitting and strong arm kept Howard out in front many times.

MORRIS PICKENS: After pitching Howard into the City Collegiate Title in the Southern series, Pickens signed with the Birmingham Barons. "Pick," needless to say, has a fine arm and should go far in major league circles.

WILTON BATSON: Veteran first sacker Batson had one of his best years, fielding around .898 and batting well over .300. "Polly" has yet another year to sock the horsehide.

DAN. SNELL: Dan ended his college career on the second sack by fielding almost a perfect season. His speed on the infield plugged a gap in the inner defense and completed a nifty double play combination. Winner of the Alabama Theater Trophy for best all-round athlete.

ED. CHOJNOWSKI: Chow, being a veteran at the hot corner, was the mainstay at third most of the season. His splendid work and accurate throws from that position held many runs on base.

ED. EUBANK: Ed. knocked the apple far, wide, and handsome many times to prove himself a powerhouse in the outer gardens. A football injury hindered his throwing arm.

HARLEY HOPKINS: Harley led the team in batting with an average well over the .400 mark. His work in the outer gardens was noteworthy of any flyhawk. HERBERT BROWNE: Shifted from second string catcher to the outfield, Herbert became a slugging Romeo. His two homers, single and double in one game with Southern was some sort of report in itself.

HUGH SMITH: Only a seasoned man in Willcox kept Smitty out of the starting line-up. Smith's work in several games was very commendable.

ERNEST STEDHAM: Serving as relief hurler, "Dad" saved his colleagues many runs by his steadiness in the pinches and his ability to work under pressure.

EWING HARBIN: Harbin closed out his college baseball by winning four games and losing only three. His batting average was very high for a pitcher and as a result he served as pinch hitter in many games.

BRUTUS BAKER: A standout freshman player was Baker, winning games both as a pitcher and as a hitter. When Baker was not called on for mound duty he roamed the left field post.

PERCY YEARGAN: Being Batson's understudy was a hard job, but Yeargan lived up to expectations and played a fine game when called on in an emergency.

JOE GANN: Joe was a very fine freshman. He had a good batting eye and possessed a strong right arm. Late in the season Joe took over Chow's place at third.

DAN MURNANE: Murnane was a hard worker and a dependable fielder but the superior work of Hopkins both in the field and at bat held him to relief roles in center field.

The local chapter is one of the founding chapters, being organized here in 1919. It was nationalized in 1924. The colors of the fraternity are black, crimson and silver, and the flower is the white rose. The publication is "Theta News."

Such gay times were had by the sisters who lounge in the lodges that we thought we ought to mention a few of them. They do not own beautiful brick houses for nothing. Remember that real swanky dance of the Phi Mu's at the Pickwick?
Rich, you would think the little girls' papas were by the ornaments and gowns they wore. Mollie and the A. D. Pi's ought to be thanked for gay times at skating parties, dances, etc.
Right nifty, in fact, one of the very niftiest, was the annual Rose Banquet and Dance of the Delta Zeta's. No less intriguing were the Beta Sig's "See the World Tours" with the interesting photos of the charming girls in the B'ham News.
Time and again Mildred Wyers and the Beta Phi Alpha's took advantage of nights meant for studying by throwing shindigs.
It looked like the A. D. Theta's had two or three parties a week, in the society columns of the newspapers. Enough to say that every one of these de-lovely people saw that everybody went places and did things. In fact some of the craziest, cleverest, oddest, newest, illiest parties on earth originated in the heads of sorority sisters while lounging around their open fires.

Kappa Psi

The Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity, founded at the Medical College of Virginia School of Pharmacy in 1879, and the oldest of all fraternities in the field of pharmacy, strictly limits its membership to students and graduates of recognized pharmacy schools. Its purposes are to foster good fellowship and brotherhood among students and graduates of pharmacy, to promote high scholarship, and to encourage and support research in the various branches of pharmaceutical endeavor. Its members are selected largely on the basis of acceptable scholarship.

Chi Alpha Sigma, honorary chemical fraternity, admits to membership those students who have completed with a creditable average ten semester hours on a major in chemistry. The fraternity meets regularly to discuss topics of its own investigation and to hear lectures from industrial chemists.

Chi Delta Phi

Chi Delta Phi, national honor sorority in English, was installed at Howard in 1924. Members are chosen from upperclass women who have distinguished themselves in some form of creative writing—either prose or poetry. Tryouts for membership are held once each semester, with a faculty committee judging the merits of the compositions. Literary endeavors of the individual members are published from time to time in The Crimson, The Quill, Campus, and the local newspapers.

A new organization on our campus is the Dietetics Club. Only members of the Dietetics Department are eligible for membership. The purpose of the group is that of promoting interest in food and nutrition, as well as developing well-rounded personalities and building a solid foundational knowledge of service to humanity. During the year the club invites many outstanding speakers to participate in its monthly programs. The members are:

B. S. U. Council

The Baptist Student Union Council represents the larger organization of the Baptist Student Union. It is made up of representatives from the various religious organizations on the campus, such as the Sunday School, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A., Ministerial Association, B. Y. P. U., and Mission Band. Its purpose is to correlate all campus religious activities into one unified whole. It is the connecting link between the college and the church.

Physical Society

The Howard College Physical Society was organized on March 4, 1936. The purpose of the society is to promote individual work in Physical Sciences among the students of Howard College.

The Woman's Student Government is composed of the presidents of all the women's organizations on the campus. They meet at regular intervals and decide upon problems confronting various women's groups, in addition to sponsoring programs of a cultural nature for the entire contingent of young women on the campus.

Fostering sportsmanship and promoting a love of activity for its own sake are the two paramount purposes of the Women's Athletic Association. Membership in this active group is based upon participation in one major sport during the year. Intramurals, which create nearly as much rivalry as the traditional Howard-Southern game, are held between Freshmen and upperclassmen.

Swimming, skating, tennis, ping pong, basketball, horseback riding, baseball, pool—these are a few of the indoor and outdoor activities on the W. A. A.'s recreational calendar.

Featured among the activities of the year was the jamboree held at the Y. M. C. A. in January. Dozens of students put down their Latin books, forgot their Shakespeare, and cancelled all meetings to attend this gay event.

Another reason why the W. A. A.'s think they are on top: They won the loving cup for the best float in the Howard-Southern parade. The idea was a clever one. On the float was a cotton field and in the center was Mammy, exclaiming, "We're going to carry you back but not to old Virginny."

Look in almost any issue of any one of the leading magazines and see the distinctive illustrations of John La Gatta, foremost authority on feminine beauty in the United States and beauty judge of the 1937 ENTRE NOUS. Mr. La Gatta, of Long Island, New York, selected Howard's six most beautiful girls from a group of twelve photographs sent him.

*The story of the selection of the twelve finalists is an account of another chapter in a Howard tradition, the annual Beauty Revue. This year the ENTRE NOUS sponsored the contest in the Peacock Ballroom of the Tutwiler Hotel. The thirty-one beauties, elected to represent various organizations on the campus, were presented to an adoring audience by Eil Spencer, tall, dark and handsome Master of Ceremonies. After each girl had made her grand entrance from behind rich velvet curtains onto a dark velvet dais in the revealing rays of the spotlight, she was given the "once over" in another room, away from her public. # Beauty in Hollywood

MISS GAIL PATRICK

The Margaret Fitzpatrick of the graduating class of 1932 is the glamorous Gail Patrick of Hollywood fame whom you see in the photograph on the opposite page. Not content with having walked off with practically all of Howard's highest campus honors, scholastic and otherwise, she went to Hollywood in August, 1932, as the winner of the much-advertised "Panther Woman Contest," and has been steadily rising as a scintillating cinema star for the last four years. Not only is Gail acclaimed one of the most truly beautiful women in pictures, but also one of the busiest. A few of her later vehicles, in which she played major roles, are: "Smart Girl," "The Lone Wolf Returns," "My Man Godfrey," "Murder With Pictures," and "The White Hunter." Forthcoming productions in which she will be featured are: "John Mead's Woman" and "Her Husband Lies." Paramount Studios recently showed their appreciation of Miss Patrick's charming personality, her poise, and her dignity, by sending her on a Good Will Tour to various points in the United States to represent them on the occasion of their Silver Jubilee.

We, the members of the four classes of Howard College, know "Gail" as one of our Alma Mater's most interested alumnae. It is through her benevolence that the two handsome Gail Patrick Awards are presented each year at commencement to the boy and girl who have rendered the most outstanding individual performance in any Masquer's production of that year. Nor is all of her enthusiasm shown from a distance. In 1934 she returned to her Alma Mater to attend the presentation of the ENTRE NOUS beauties and spent much of her time on the campus telling Howard how Hollywood lives. Her visit to Birmingham again this year showed her to be the same friendly, loyal Howard devotee.

Cast of Thousands Chosen for

WE are proud to be able to present for the first time the cast and shooting script of the famous novel, "Gone With the Wind." We publish herewith the actual scenario of the book, as the following cast will play it:

The scenario, written by such eminent geniuses as William Silas Vance, Charles Dickens, Homer (Bagley), P. P. Burns and Booker T. Washington, is one of the sensations of the current year, pushing such standbys as Uncle Tom's Cabin, Tobacco Road, Stars Fell On Alabama, The Birth of a Nation, and Abie's Irish Rose out of the picture.

Following is the million-dollar script:

A I R P L A N E VIEW: The campus of Howard College. It is night. Main Building, Montague, Science Hall, Ethnopia Hall are but dark blots. Visible is the white arch, shining with a ghostly sheen in the fitful light of the Neon sign which glitters on and off. Near the arch, on the South side, are Scarlett O'Hara and Melanie.

Scarlett (Edith)—Why, Melanie, where have you been?

Claudia (Melanie)—I've just returned from a book review of "Gone With the Wind," given by Miss Boyett to the Booklovers.

Edith (Scarlett)—Have you heard the news? The Science Hall has seceded from the college! (Mournful music is played by the orchestra at this point.)

Claudia—No! You don't mean it!

Edith—Yes I do mean it, too. They disapprove of the neon sign on the arch.

Claudia—This means tragedy, stark tragedy. I see it coming. War is inevitable!

Edith—It will be horrible, horrible . . . but I kinda like soldiers all dressed up in uniforms, don't you?

FADE-IN: On the North side of the arch are three figures barely discernable.

Tom (Rhett)—The Science Hall has seceded from the college!

Dr. Greer—What, don't they belong to the union anymore?

Roosevelt—No, and that is what's so unfair. They don't belong to the union and yet they are staging a sit-down strike. It's a crying shame.

Tom—Here comes Looney Bentley. Maybe she can help.

CLOSE-UP: Two persons, a boy and a girl, are sitting under the moon. They are whispering.

Ed—But, darling, do you mean it?

Mildred—I certainly do. Either you give up your trombone, or quit trying to slide my elbow out of joint every time you kiss me.

FULL - LENGTH VIEW—Martha Jordan is playing Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes on the chapel piano.

Dr. Chapman—Swing it, Martha!

FADE-IN: A secret call meeting in the ADPi lodge. The orchestra is playing, softly, The Dream Girl of Pi K. A. Dorothy Lockett seems to like the song.

Mollie—Girls, this is serious. We are about to lose the third and fourth mortgages on our lodge. Mr. Cole says that if we don't pay our rent by night, we will be moved out. Girls, this is serious.

Mrs. Obenchain—I have a little psychological test all prepared, to determine whether or not the girls are taking it seriously.

Mollie—(Thinking she is in Science Hall)—I've got to get to work cutting up that cat Thursday. We name the cats in honor of the day they get dissected. Where's Dr. Brakefield?

(Not a word is spoken for a moment—not even the whishing of a dozen jaws chewing gum can be heard—mention of the Science Hall is no less than mutiny, here in the union line-up (ADPi—Sigma Nu—Theta Kappa Nu). Mollie sees that she has made a mistake, and nonchalantly steps up to the firing squad. She is very brave. She knows it is only a movie, anyhow. Mollie's a nice little girl. Maybe she should have been Scarlett O'Hara.)

Scarlett (Edith)—This isn't getting us anywhere. How can we pay off the mortgage and keep our lodge?

Tony Sparks—You didn't say that right, Edith. Try it again, like this: How can we PAY OFF the mortgage and KEEP our lodge?

Edith—How can we PAY OFF the mortgage, and KEEP our lodge?

Jean Baker—I've got a swell idea . . . We'll creep through the new ditches they have made to run steam heat in here, and get into Montague.

The girls creep into Montague. They whisper among themselves.

Miss Willoughby—Shhh! Why can't you girls be quiet in the library?

QUICK SHOT: Alex McCutchen is putting his car in its garage. (Folding his thumb under his forefingers.) This scene is done entirely in pantomime, directed by Winthrop Kellogg.

SIDE VIEW: Faculty members are sitting in a circle. One can tell at a glance it is a faculty meeting—they never sit together anywhere else.

Dr. Neal—How can we make the students attend chapel?

Dr. Dawson—Give them all membership in the Mickey Mouse club, and let it meet every Tuesday and Thursday at nine-thirty.

CLOSE-UP: The Howard Quartet, in blackface, lying under a magnolia tree on the edge of the campus, singing "Copper-Colored Gal," "Swing, Sugar, Mother-In-Law," "Dinah," and other Negro spirituals. Note to director: Procure Amos 'n' Andy, Molasses an' Jamerry, and Al Jolson for this scene. It couldn't be any worse.

FADE-IN: Scarlett (to get back to our story) in Mr. Cole's office.

Mr. Cole—What can I do for you, Edith? All my NYA scholarships are taken.

Edith—I want to talk to you about the lease on the ADP's lodge.

Mr. Cole—That's fine, Edith, just fine. But perhaps you had better talk to Mr. Causey about that.

Mr. Causey—That's fine, Edith, just fine. But perhaps you had better talk to Mr. McClure about that.

Mr. McClure—That's fine, Edith, just fine. But perhaps you had better talk to Dr. Neal about that.

Dr. Neal—That's fine, Edith, just fine. But perhaps you had better talk to Mr. Cole about that.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW: Gettysburg. (Located just South of Main Building—sometimes called Berry Field.)

Bancroft—The world will little note, nor long remember, what we play here, but the News, the Age-Herald and the Post have been mighty decent to us. Let's give three big yells for publicity!

UPSIDE-DOWN VIEW: Johnny Prescott.

John—(to Ruth Kyle)—I'm head over heels in love.

Ruth—Yeah . . . with the Woman's Student Government, the Y. W. C. A., the Phi Mus, the Delta Zetas, and a few unaffiliated females.

STRAIGHT SHOT: Two figures under the moonlight at Tarver's Leap (sometimes known as Mamie Mell Smith Hall).

Irene Martin—The moon is lovely tonight.

Mell Scarbringle—It certainly is. Charley and Morris would have to stay home and study to night!

CLOSE-UP: The bulletin board in Main Bldg. Various signs are posted in motley disarray. Peg McKewen, please call 6-4390—Will the following see Mr. Cole in his office immediately—Last, one fraternity pin from Sigma Nu, and one from Pi K. A., if found, please return to Doris Carbett—For Rent Room in nice house with fine view of the college from window—Hypatia will meet at 1:30.

Hoyt Ayers—The furnace in Montague has been fired upon by the Science Hall!

Dick Clay—What's the matter with those birds?

Hoyt—They were cold, I guess, and wanted some heat.

TRICK SHOT: Professor Hendricks and Dr. Greer shaking hands.

FADE-IN: A group of students lounging on the rumpus.

Berta Ruth Roe—Do you think I really look like a movie star?

Glen Hearn—Yeah—like Zazu Pitts.

Berta Ruth—Stop it, Glen!

Glen—I will not.

Berta Ruth—Oh, here comes Norman. Norman!

Glen—Why, of course I'll stop, of course!

Norman (tall out of breath from running)—The South has won! The war is over!

All—You don't mean it!

Cooper—It's true, Dr. Brakesfield was South. He bid three no-trumps and was doubled. He accepted, and re-doubled. He finessed a queen (something Edward the Seventh wasn't able to do) and made seven no-trumps—a grand slam!

All (singing)—For he's a jolly good fellow, he's a jolly good fellow . . .

AIRPLANE VIEW: The rumpus of Howard College. It is night. Main Bldg., Montague, Science Hall, Ethiopia Hall are but dark blots. Visible is the white arch, shining with a ghostly sheen in the fitful light of the Neon sign which glitters on and off. Near the arch, on the South side, are Scarlett O'Hara and Melanie.

Scarlett (Edith)—Why, Melanie, where have you been?

Claudia (Melanie)—I've just returned from a book review of "Gone With the Wind," given by Miss Boyett to the Booklovers.

Catherine Ham—It's wonderful! Wonderful! But haven't I seen this some where before?

Hal Ferguson—Of course you have, you mule. This is where we came in.

ACADEMY AWARDS

For the best performances of the year, the Silver Scream Academy wishes to decorate the following Howard students who have done one or more things during the fiscal year (September-May) with such verve, vitality, gusto, or just plain downright abandon, that they have made themselves known as more than usually excellent students. The following are invited to wear the bright red ribbon of the Silver Scream Academy Awards.

ROSALIE THORNTON

Because, of all nice girls in the college, she is the most vivacious in her conversation, the most intriguing in her tailoring (have you seen that marvelous coat the color of rabbits' eyes?), the most intelligent in matters of finance, as demonstrated by her splendid business managing of The Crimson, and, best of all, the happiest co-ed in school. She knows Spanish and French, too—si, si, monsieur.

JOE HEALEY

Right out of high school Joe popped to edit the Freshman Class edition of The Crimson, and it was a very nice issue indeed. He also assists Mr. Causey in keeping straight the grades of nigh on to a thousand Howard students. Not to mention that he is the brother of that splendid fellow, Charles Healey. Undaunted by the good nature of Charles, Joe is learning to be even better-natured. And he writes jolly little compositions, doesn't he, Miss Boyett?

BILLY EPPES

One day in chapel there was no program, and who should suddenly startle the crowd with a tremendous array of impersonations but Billy Eppes, he who had always been timorous and non-public in his display of talent. Since his debut he has been in constant demand, and will continue to be. Look out there, Sheila Barrett. He is probably the best-informed person in this college on matters of the theatre and cinema.

HENRY ANDERTON

The dry wit! The sorry pun! The ignoble jest! The magnificent nonchalance! These, and many more, are the characteristics of the worldly Anderton, known far and wide for his amazing felt hat and dirty-seated pants, in which he works at the Howard stage. Such ennui is deserving of honor. Such insouciance, seldom seen hereabouts, is more than deserving of mention. And, to make a dirty remark about his dirty remarks: Say some of those things in public, Henry!

ACADEMY AWARDS

BUELL WARREN

Not only one of the hottest linesmen the Bulldogs have had in years, but one of the most interested in timely affairs is Buell Warren. He takes a lively part in all class discussions, stating his beliefs in no mollycoddling terms. As president of the H Club he got all the boys interested in listening to lecturers and quizzing them afterwards. If for nothing else, he should be lauded for his attitude on the chapel attendance question.

WILLIAM WEAVER

Be it made public now that William Weaver, Freshman, has worked like a doggone slave on this annual, typing long paragraphs about Seniors, making out complex diagrams of the football team, locating snapshots of beauties and Who's Whos, and generally being to the ENTIRE POINT what Martha Sutley is to The Crimson. And not only that, but he will be as surprized as you to see this paragraph about him here. Hi, William!

ROBBIE OWINGS

Such good nature cannot be denied. Robbie is undoubtedly the most genial girl who ever became a popular success at Howard. She plays when people ask her, she sings when people ask her, she acts cute when people ask her, and she is doing right well for herself in the matter of campus company. Another year of such success, and she will rival the record of the loveliest co-eds the college has ever seen.

MARGARET BURFORD

Ah, when will there ever be another Burford? They say she has a little sister, but surely this little one can never equal the conquest Margaret has made of her public. It is partly her appreciation of wit and humor, and partly those admirable mittens made from orange wool that make her such a devilish cute person. She acts well, and dances well, and dresses well, and laughs well—in other words, she's all right.

H. K. MARTIN

Stand forth, H. K., and let the people see you. What a pity that you have hidden yourself in strange language textbooks, instead of rollicking about the campus as all intelligent graduates seem to have done for years. And what a pity that the student body as a whole has not become acquainted with the pithy apothegms that fall from your lips. Speak in that deep voice, and tell us, H. K., a deep secret: Do you really enjoy speaking German?

PRE-VUES OF PAST ATTRACTIONS

The Fall semester started off with a bang (plaster falling in Main Building on Marie Trammel, John Hollingsworth, John Rogers and an unknown gentleman named Mr. Salvani) and the first week was an uninterrupted orgy of registering, rushing and eating chocolate fudge sundaes. Two Freshmen who became overnight successes were Robbie Owings and Arline Patterson, followed by Jared Walker and Billy Burns.

The first contentment with conditions wore off after just one week of the new five-day system. A poll conducted by Hugh Frank Smith of The Crimson revealed that students were heartily in disfavor of the five-day week. The administration did not bother to alter the way in which it conducted the college, however, and people finally became used to the idea.

Appointment of John Hix as Parade Director aroused keen interest in the annual Howard-Southern affair that winds downtown from Wilson Park in a helter-skelter arrangement of take-offs, gags, and lovely floats. Hix named McKinley Gilliland, Isabel Wilson and Henry Anderton to high office in the committee patronage business and plans were begun for the Big Event of the season. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs were making no mean progress toward the Dixie Conference Championship, bowling over Loyola, Southwestern, and a few others. Cries of "Howard for the Rose Bowl!" were heard.

Incidental to the parade work was the vast amount of joking being done on the campus about the Henry Allen Parker object d'art known as The Arch. Hearing that a Neon sign was proposed for it, Hal Ferguson, Science Hall genius, stated: "They might as well have Howard College, Cheapest Rates in Town, with a Bulldog that goes on and off in two colors."

Along about this time, Prof. De Launay was decorated by the French government for his teaching of the French language in the United States for seventeen years. Lonnie Lindsey was selected head cheerleader. Prof. Maxwell Lancaster (for a time a real announcer for WAPI) predicted that the rebels would win in Spain. Sybil Baird announced Chi Delta Phi tryouts, and dozens of feminine students began to compose at sonnets, quatrains, short stories and probably novels.

Kate Duncan Smith made a fine appearance in chapel, followed by resounding applause. The Career Conference got the girls all ready for Life, and Mrs. Obenchain was satisfied for a while.

The male element on the campus went nuts over Simone Simon in "Girls' Dormitory," and the name of Robert Taylor was being bandied about in the incidental conversation of the co-eds. He is a right pretty character, as Tony Sparks, Mabel Willoughby, Miss Bost, Irene Martin, Juliette Fuller and Mary Lou Miller all admitted with a flutter of dizzy heartstrings. Swing music was being raved over by the addicts of Benny Goodman, whilst Dean Burns chewed his fingernails in wrath that such abominations could exist as "I'se A' Muggin'," and "Christopher Columbus." In the interests of good music, Hoyt Ayres, Jack Aikens, LaFayette Walker and Ralph Feild originated the Howard College quartet and made a striking success.

Much talk was heard of a college news magazine, the first of its kind, and lo! one day there appeared Campus, a hefty document in the style of Time and Literary Digest, with Billy Bancroft and Ray Davis on the cover. Inside were articles by Hugh Frank Smith, Lee White, Dean P. P. Burns, Prof. Xan and Harold Dunnam. The last line of a poem by a departed professor went around the campus like wildfire, when students discovered that it was good enough to have been printed in Smokehouse Monthly. From the interest taken in that piece of poetry, one would have thought a literary renaissance to have been in effect.

The Entre Nous beauty parade was held in the Tutwiler Hotel, and great was the concourse of people that gathered to see Amelia Scott, Peg McKewen, Mildred Newell, Frances Hogan, Ellen Ruth Isbell, Mell Scarborough, Isabel Wilson, Berta Ruth Roe, Dorothy Lockett, Edith Jones, Mollie Anderton and Robbie Owings walk off with the honors.

Dr. Thomas published a book, and Dr. Greer came up with Beis D'Arc to Barb'd Wire, which the Progressive Farmer literary critic praised as a better-written book than Gone With the Wind, which was selling something like a million copies at three dollars a copy, and seemingly everyone at Howard had read it and was determined to tell the world about it. Scarlett O'Hara was as well known a person as Mrs. Embury or Gypsy Rose Lee.

Martha Raye came in a new picture to fascinate the students with her wide-mouthed technique of singing Here Comes the Bride as swing music. Oh, Mr. Pagianini!

The Roosevelt-Landon campaign was the chief topic of conversation for almost a week before election day, with such events as the Wally Simpson affair and the thousand-dollar campaign to compete with.

The Wally-Edward situation became the one subject of discourse in classroom and street car. The Crimson wrote an editorial on the situation, the daily newspapers and the radio gave more attention to it than the assassination of Hitler and Mussolini would have gotten.

Hoyt Ayres, excellent student body president, was busy collecting the thousand dollars from students, and got together a good sum. Freshmen boys went unshaved from November 6 to November 21, the day of the Southern game. There is a rumour to the effect that the Bulldogs kind of won that game. The Panthers went home weeping, and Ray Christian got a eulogy from Zipp Newman in the News-Age-Herald the next morning.

Ada Powell was quoted as saying that it takes a long time to get used to all the religion on the campus.

'The Importance of Being Earnest,' an Oscar Wilde play, was presented in chapel with an hilarious audience applauding mightily the acting of Elizabeth Riddick, H. K. Martin, Henry Anderton, Isabel Wilson, Lee White, Robbie Owings, Mary Alice Maxwell, Jerry Walker.

Announcement was made that the Women's Athletic Organization and Pi K. A. fraternity had the best floats in the Howard Southern parade. May Crowley, Blanche Walls, Frances MacDaniel, Winifred Peterson, Jane Smith were admitted to Chi Delta Phi.

Miss Boyett, reading of Hitler, Gen'l Franco, Japan and Russia, got together a Peace Club to stave off war for a while. The H Club put on one of its best affairs at the Pickwick, and shining in glory were Cooper, Eubank, Burgett and Christian, members of the All-Dixie football team. Gail Patrick, the little girl who made good in Hollywood, came back to visit again, and all we heard was that she knew a man with a lot of money who owned the Brown Derby, and when she left, it leaked out that she was wearing the Brown Derby for life, since she was married to the proprietor.

Christmas holidays were upon the student body before they could say "Jack Robinson" in early Anglo-Saxon. Everyone was in love with the song hit "Organ Grinder's Swing," much to the discomfort of many ears. A Christmas tree party was given in chapel, with Dr. Brakefield disguised as the old gentleman with the long white beard and the red underwear. Hoyt Ayers made a nice talk, and a group from the speech class read in chorus a selection from the Scriptures. Margaret Burford recited a piece written by Wm. Shakespeare and Margaret Burford. Beatrice was given a surprise package that contained everything from a new winter coat to a sack of nuts, apples, candy, chewing gum, and oranges.

Catherine Ham, Martha Sutley and others began to talk about a new picture magazine, Life, and when the library got a copy of it everybody on the campus rushed up to the library to get a look at Wally, pickaninnies Truckin' in New York, the Archbishop of Canterbury in an unposed moment, and other candid cameras.

Billie Perry, lovely co-ed who plays the violin, went from Phillips to Woodlawn to Ensley High playing nice music to intrigue High School graduates out to East Lake—and succeeded. Mitchell Dombrow, publicity director, advertised scholarships, and got seeds of entries. The second semester was opened one week later in order to accommodate incoming Freshmen. As usual at the end of the semester, it was discovered that Dick Clay had made six straight A's.

The basketball team, one of the best in the surrounding territory, played the Celtics and lost by a three-point margin. People were turned away by hundreds at the box office, and a return engagement was arranged, and the Celtics did a little better the second time; but meanwhile, the Bulldogs had copped the Big Five Championship and the Hickman-Kerns trophy. The Alabama silver cup, each year awarded to the outstanding athlete, was put on display in the library to encourage the athletic lads. Southern was defeated in no time for the city collegiate championship.

Talk of the sit-down strike drifted into the classrooms, and the Ohio Flood aroused considerable sympathy among the undergraduates. Along about this time was the Pi K. A. annual dance, which the boys had at the Birmingham Country Club (nice work, boys) amid much splendor and nice music. After the dance, Ed Nichols and Mildred Newell plighted their troth, and Mildred, who was wearing a red evening gown (very pretty) decided that it was the wrong color to get married in, and borrowed a white dress from the minister's wife.

Until far into March, the second semester student body wandered hither and thither, recovering from examinations and having just a very good time and to heck with classes. Carroll Kilpatrick and Kate Duncan Smith of the Age-Herald joined the faculty and made a considerable success.

Class editions of The Crimson caused a crisis now and then, the Senior edition printing the picture of Hugh Frank Smith for the first time during his college career, much to the dismay of Smith and the joy of his associates.

A fashion show at the Alabama exhibited the lovely charms of Mary Ellen Adkins, Peg McKewen, Isabel Wilson, Robbie Owings, Louise Ward and Edith Jones. Stunt night plans were mumbled about in whispers, as Billy Burns, Henry Anderton, McKinley Gilliland and Catherine Ham, class chairmen, began to worry about March 19. Lee White, chairman for the occasion, chose as judges Dr. Lee McBride White, Mrs. Lee McBride White, Harvey O'Neal White and Doris Bridges. The Sophomores, wily students, had a take-off on the college. The Freshmen, shrewd students, had a take-off on the college. The Seniors, smart geniuses, had a take-off on the college. It was suggested that the Juniors have a take-off on a burlesque dancer, but this suggestion met with little approval from the college authorities, who hated to see even one class that did not take-off on the faculty.

Our admirable governor Hibb Graves disturbed economic progress along the Race Track with his tax tokens, and many were the puns on this. "All our money will be taken away from us," remarked J. C. Adams. "Take this as a token of my appreciation," said Billy Childers as she paid for a hamburger in Duck Inn.

While praises were yet resounding from the magnificent Phi Mu dance at the Pickwick, the Beta Sigs arranged a similar affair, and a mighty fine time was had by all. Mary Lou Miller looked better than ever, and the entire social set of the college had a high time.

A minor sensation was created with the arrival of Theodore Geshkoff, Carnegie-paid speaker on the international situation, and for a while seeds of students studied up on the Balkan situation, civil war in Spain, international relations, and the peaceful pursuit of happiness.

The political pot boiled furiously, and new officers for next term were selected after much deliberation. The failure of a clique to elect any person to office was commended by Oscar S. Causey, Registrar, Annabel Hollingsworth, the president's secretary, and Cletus Ford, assistant registrar's assistant.

The Masquers went into a literary trance and produced Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors, with a little assistance from Winthrop Kelley, local Shakespearean expert. The thing was tremendous. Costumes were gorgeous. Acting, magnificent. Lighting, mighty fine. The audience, fascinated. Anne Jo Ryan, Jack Kelser, Billy Burns, Mary Katherine Pass, Homely Bager, Alfred Trimm, Chesty Goodwin, Elizabeth Davis, Glenn Stewart, Cecil King and a cast of thousands were held over for a second night, and then a third.

Charles Healey (Causey's stooge; next thing you know, he'll be growing a mustache too) checked up on his records, much to the discomfort of Bud Sharp, Mary Carter, Henry Lee Burgett, Greasy Waites and others who had to plan for a diploma in August. It was nice to hear that Dick Clay, candidate for the Elks' national scholarship scholarship also had to be graduated in summer school. (That sentence was mighty involved, like one of Dean Burns'. It is rumored that he once got lost in the middle of one of those involved phrasings and never got out; lost his mind and began quoting Hamlet's advice to the players.)

While Miss Boyett was on tour around the state reviewing Gone With The Wind, Registrar Causey had a re-organization of his office, and absolutely refused to let people come in, even when they wanted to do something urgent like phoning home or playing a game of dominoes.

Along about this time the April Fools' edition of The Crimson raised guffaws all over the campus. In it were stories dealing with the explosion of Main Building; the private life of Percy Pratt Burns; the lynching of Hoyt Ayers at the arch; Obie Obenchain winning the grand prize in the Alabama Rural Arts Conclave—(she won the hog slopping contest); the reception for Kitty Mu in the girls' dormitory; Dr. Hess winning a prize for Trucking; Dr. Abercrombie's faculty conference with a co-ed . . . (ummmm—back issues of April Fools' edition can be bought for only one dollar; send your order to Hugh Frank Smith, Munford.)

A bombshell exploded in chapel on the otherwise calm morning when Alex McCutchen made the official proposal that the ENTE NOUS (yes, this very same ENTRE NOUS in which you are now so breathlessly immersed) be done away with, and printed in sections under the name Campus—along with literary endeavors, cartoons, caricatures, informal snapshots, etc. What a morning! The acoustics quivered under the verbal attacks of Hal Bennett and Roscoe Knight, who pooh-poohed the idea. The acoustics then quivered under the verbal attacks of Ed Spencer and Herbert Howard, who pooh-poohed the idea of Hal Bennett and Roscoe Knight. But the dear students voted to keep the ENTE NOUS. They are very wise. No one can horns-woggle and otherwise flimflam them. No, sireee!

About that time, "Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities," a pretty, bright blue book, came off the press and in it, inquisitive Howard students discovered the birth dates of Hoyt Ayers, Hugh Frank Smith, Mollie Anderton, Ed Spencer, Alex McCutchen, Lee White and Mary Ellen Adkins.

Well, after that came the real high point of the semester: Spring elections. What a time! Lindsey gave out cigars, and William Walker gave out cigars, and Blanche Walls gave out handbills, and Ellen Ruth Isbell gave out stickers, and Bud Sharp gave out cards, and Herbert Howard gave out promises. The race for head cheerleader was just as good, with Jimmy Redd stealing the show on speech day by appearing as a monkey—he was acting).

And then Bebe Anderson had a blaze of publicity in the Birmingham Post, with dozens of magnificent pictures being printed, and prophecy of a screen career ahead (see cover of Silver Scream; we're prophets, too). And then Bebe went to Atlanta for a screen test, which made everyone very happy to know such a celebrity.

Trident tap day found all the Juniors huddled in the chapel seats, scared and wondering. Lots of nice speeches and lots of nice compliments, and then Louis Roberts, Glenn Stewart, Harold Baxley, Herbert Howard and Charles Barnes found themselves the lucky boys.

Then they voted on May Queen, and who should get the honor but the charming Maralyn Hardy, who really deserved it. The ceremony was all very touching, with the May court all dolled up in white: Mell Scarborough, Rebecca Dailey and Martha Jule Blackshear in a special place of honor. The other representatives were elegant gals like Louise Ward, Dorothy Lockett and Frances Strock.

And then: graduation. You don't know how sincerely we hope that you haven't graduated when you get this annual; it's supposed to come out in May.

What a nice year this has been. How enchanting, how very charming. How tender! How delightful! Ah, yes, we are growing sentimental. Alas! that we should ever say farewell to beautiful Howard, with its green grass and red brick buildings (which is far better than green buildings and red brick grass)—ah, yes! farewell to Beatrice, to Sherman Oak, (which one of those trees is Sherman Oak?)—farewell to Mr. McClure and his little account book, farewell to Dr. Greer (but we won't gripe about it since he's a very good teacher)—aye, and a fond goodbye to Dean Burns, to Berry Field, and, well—so long, T. V. It's been nice knowing you.)

A Market for Your College Education

Many graduates of universities and colleges and others who have attended colleges, realize that their higher education is only foundational.

Some of them, through making applications for positions, have discovered that a general education is not enough. Modern business asks not only, "What do you know?" but "What can you do?"

Many employers prefer college-trained young people. A Wheeler Secretarial training supplies the link between a college training and a good position.

Wheeler has helped scores of college graduates to bridge the gap and find a market for their college education. Call, write, or phone for forty-ninth annual catalog.
